MARIA
HIGH SCHOOL

Come, Holy Spirit, with God the Son,
And God the Father ever One:
By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, Thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That other souls may kindle thence.

Dedication

His Eminence

Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer

"... RECEIVE THE RED HAT . . . by which you must show yourself to be steadfast even to death . . . for the exaltation of the Holy Faith, . . . for peace and tranquillity among all Christian people, and for the welfare of the Holy Roman Church, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Thus Pope John XXIII, by the power of the Holy Spirit, creates another Cardinal.

Albert Gregory Meyer, Cardinal-Archbishop of Chicago, devoted son of the Church, is Shepherd of more than two million Catholics in the Archdiocese of Chicago. Cardinal Meyer has been endowed by the Holy Spirit with a knowledge of truth and strength to defend it. He leads a vast army of crusaders seeking perfection through the Holy Spirit. Our Maria High School comprises only a fraction of that legion pledging devotion to our new Cardinal and his work in the Church. The Cardinal's motto, "Thy Kingdom Come," is activated through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

To this new Prince of the Church and guardian of the Cross, Albert Gregory Cardinal Meyer, we dedicate the 1960 MARIA.

Colour Portrait by Fabian Bachrach

Fabian Bachrach

"Holy Mary, Chaste Spouse of the Holy Spirit, help me to keep spotless the temple of the Divine Spirit within me."

May The Power Of The Holy Spirit Be Ever With Us!

We, Maria students of today, are now training for the staggering task of forging a tomorrow of peace. Our future will give to us exactly what we have to offer it in return. Hence, we wield the natural endowments of youth—courage . . . idealism . . . zeal—and petition the Holy Spirit to become our Divine Master. Through Him we are given a direction and purpose in shaping our tomorrow.

In WISDOM we turn to things eternal;
With UNDERSTANDING we see the light of divine truth;
By COUNSEL we choose to please Him;
May FORTITUDE aid us to bear our cross with courage;
Our KNOWLEDGE reflects one wish, to know God, and to perfect ourselves;
The FEAR of displeasing Him—our only dread;
From PIETY we savor the sweet taste of service in love.

Seven-fold Gifts of the Holy Spirit, rule our every action with a never-ending tribute to God, in Whom is all fulfillment!

Further, the fact that the defendant's conduct was not a crime under the law of the state where it occurred, and that the defendant was not a citizen of the United States, are factors that weigh against the prosecution. The court also noted that the defendant was not a citizen of the United States, and that the defendant was not a citizen of the United States.

Our graduation culminates four years at Maria. We cross Maria's threshold for the last time, aware that all high school events are but memories. Momentous incidents of yesterday now seem trifling and insignificant.

These days, however, have contributed more than just memories. Enriched by dedicated and assiduous teachers we have advanced to clearer perception of truth. Today, we are better equipped to surmount life's obstacles. Catholic principles imparted here will govern our actions in quandaries and emergencies. Maria High School has truly opened doors we never knew existed.

The future remains obscure, but by seeking to perpetuate the Gifts of the Presence in our hearts, we will procure His invaluable assistance. May we never comminate this intimacy with the Holy Spirit so that He may ever lead us safely beneath His Sacred Wings!

A Word To The Graduates

When you received your information, it was very helpful and clearly explained the situation. Mr. Jones has a very good attitude. This was especially helpful to me because it was helpful to you a couple of weeks ago. I will take her place if I would as well.

JUNIOR CLASS

Class Officers: Margaret K. ...
President: Margaret K. ...
Vice President: Margaret K. ...

Upperclass maturity makes us aware of charity—guiding force in quest for happiness. Our lives revolve around the Holy Spirit—source of inspiration and love.

Inquiring minds, resuming their endless search for knowledge, answer the knowing call to advancement. We aspire towards the culminating ideal of our predecessors—achieving true Christian womanhood. As loyal representatives of Maria, we continue to uphold the principles of the Order.

The junior spirit of generosity takes root within us—to provide for the seniors Ring Day memories and Class Day farewells. Faithfully we carry the torch of service and follow the path which it illumines. Lager anticipation becomes our stepping stone as we embark on the threshold of senior leadership. Fervently our hearts implore: "Holy Spirit, abide with us forever!"

The diagram illustrates a 1D lattice chain. A horizontal line represents the lattice, with several vertical bars indicating the positions of lattice sites. Arrows above the line show the hopping of particles between adjacent sites. One site is specifically labeled with the index i below it, and its corresponding vertical bar is slightly larger than the others.

FRESHMAN CLASS

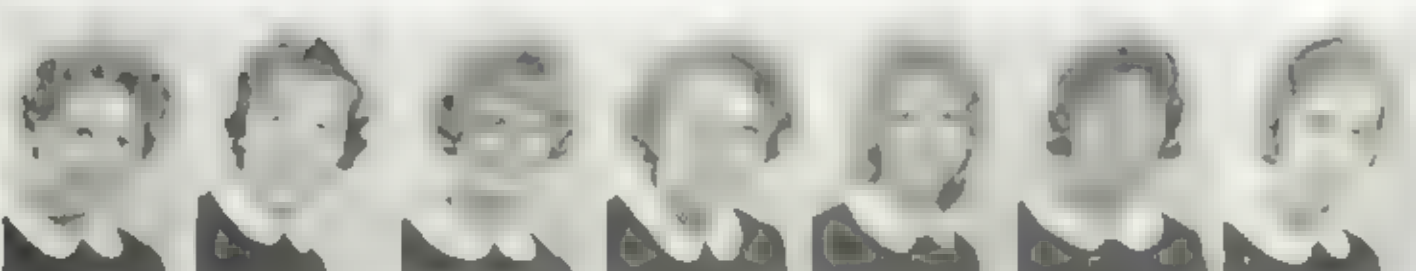

We come to Maria, fresh and eager for new learning. If preconceived ideas of glamour and good times were entertained in our minds, we soon discover that high school is a time for maturing. Our first year of high school, our freshman year, revolves around the intricate details of our studies, the quotations of Shakespeare, and the doctrines and traditions of our Catholic faith.

The Holy Spirit permeates our school day in the serene presence of Maria's soul-calming presence. Here all confusion and anxiety are forgotten and confidence is renewed. Here, too, each problem is resolved.

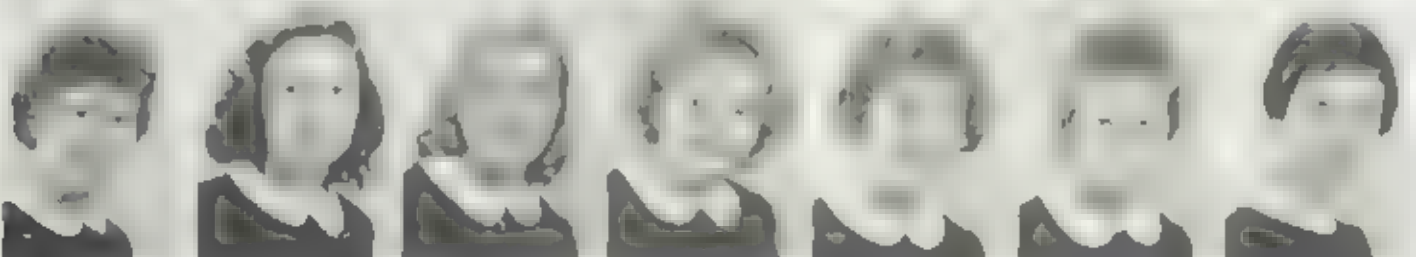

Our willingness to work is evidenced in every challenge that comes our way. With undaunted spirit we hold our heads high and follow the praiseworthy example of upperclassmen.

Faithfully we repeat this prayer: Holy Spirit, guide us through this first year and continue to aid us, until we reach the pinnacle of high school life—our senior year and true womanhood.

... of Christ ... There can be no ideally perfect education which is not Christian education." (Pope Pius XI)

Viewing the Creative Love, attributed to God the Father ... invest ... the Redemptive Love of God the Son ... the Sanctifying Love of the Holy Spirit ... we discover the magnitude of God's love for man. Our four years of training provide for us preparation also in Christian social principles

The highest goal in life is the bliss that will be the reward of a life guided by the love of God. However, we must know and believe before we can desire or love. Under the surveillance of the Divine Trainer of souls, the Holy Spirit, we turn from darkness to light. Complete knowledge and application of our holy religion—such is our foremost and ultimate objective

Fervent Meditation . . . Sincere Self-Evaluation

Love to Love—this is the great lesson presented to us by John Howard Johnson, CSP, on the occasion of his presentation on June 10, 1970.

The great lesson is that the only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself.

The only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself. The only way to love is to love oneself.

Literature . . . God's Gift of Communication

Two young women are shown reading a book together.

One of the most important gifts we have is the gift of communication. We have the ability to share our thoughts, feelings, and experiences with others. This is a gift that we should treasure and use wisely.

Communication is the bridge that connects us to others. It is the way we share our lives and learn from each other. We must always strive to be good communicators, both in our words and in our actions.

Let us always remember that communication is a gift from God. We must use it wisely and lovingly, for it is the way we build a better world for ourselves and for others.

Computing The Vastness of God's Creation

Dr. Peter Dinkley, Director of the Center for the Study of Science and Faith

There is a vastness of science and faith that one can only begin to grasp. The vastness of the universe and the vastness of the human mind are the vastness of the universe. The vastness of the universe is the vastness of the universe. The vastness of the universe is the vastness of the universe.

For example, a very large fraction of the population of the United States is employed in services. Although some degree of specialization is possible even in a service economy, it is not so simple as in a manufacturing economy. The service economy has a high degree of heterogeneity, and the high degree of heterogeneity and competition is expected to increase the need for a more sophisticated form of human resource management. A human capital development strategy aimed to be able to discover and nurture service economy talents is proposed as a key to success.

The task is often formalized as follows. Suppose the data S and target y consists of pairs (x, y) where $x \in \mathcal{X}$ and $y \in \mathcal{Y}$ is a real solution. We want to find a function f that takes as input x and outputs $f(x)$.

Prelude To Christian Home Life

tention to the object being held.

Develop the whole person to form the true and perfect Christian." This recommendation by Pope Pius XI affords us the rich potentialities of deepening Christian principles and augmenting our preparation for family living. Homemaking achieves this objective. The varied aspects of this study enable the homemaker of the narrow to assume her share of family responsibility now and to prepare for the future life of a Christian wife and mother.

The Maria girl seeks to acquire dexterity in the widely diversified facets of cooking, house-keeping, sewing, child care, and nursing competence. Thus she exemplifies the standards set by our Blessed Lady in the Christian Living Up to the standards of her development, she becomes a prototype of true womanhood to take her place in the society of the Christian Home.

Highest Form of Praise to the Holy Spirit

A talented new addition to the Music faculty is conductor Mrs. Emily Wolf.

Music — volumes of fervent harmony, vibrant with emotions of the human soul seeks fulfillment through expression of its Creator's essence. With moods as varied as the human heart, music throbs its message, of engulfing sorrow or glowing rapture.

Musical expression rises as a common voice to utter adulation to God. Her serene movements become as movements, inspired by the Holy Spirit, each with its own distinct personality and purpose, yet blending in accord to comprise a finished symphony of love.

Maria's song reflects expectation befitting a nation of "Christ the King" . . . her soul glows with joy, and she bursts forth to celebrate the Christmas season, His Holy Birth. With a dash of vivacity to quicken the heart, Maria dips into fantasy with "The King and Jubilation floods the spring and quickens the Maria heart, as students sing to Mary crowned Queen of Heaven.

All messages made known through music, instrumental and vocal specializations — aim at perfection of performance.

Conditioning the Temple of the Holy Spirit

Steam inhalator offers relief to mock patient, Rosalie Hehn, by Valerie Morrison

Strength of soul and body are united as Maria's comprehensive curriculum sets the foundations for our future. Healthy souls are nurtured with the wisdom of the Holy Spirit. Souls become strong, nourished and sustained by vigorous physical activity.

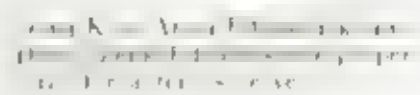

Health and home nursing are proffered to us, as we — helpmates to mankind — become mindful of our womanly responsibilities. Gymnastics, volleyball, basketball — physical education — all set our bodies as a framework for the development of inner qualities.

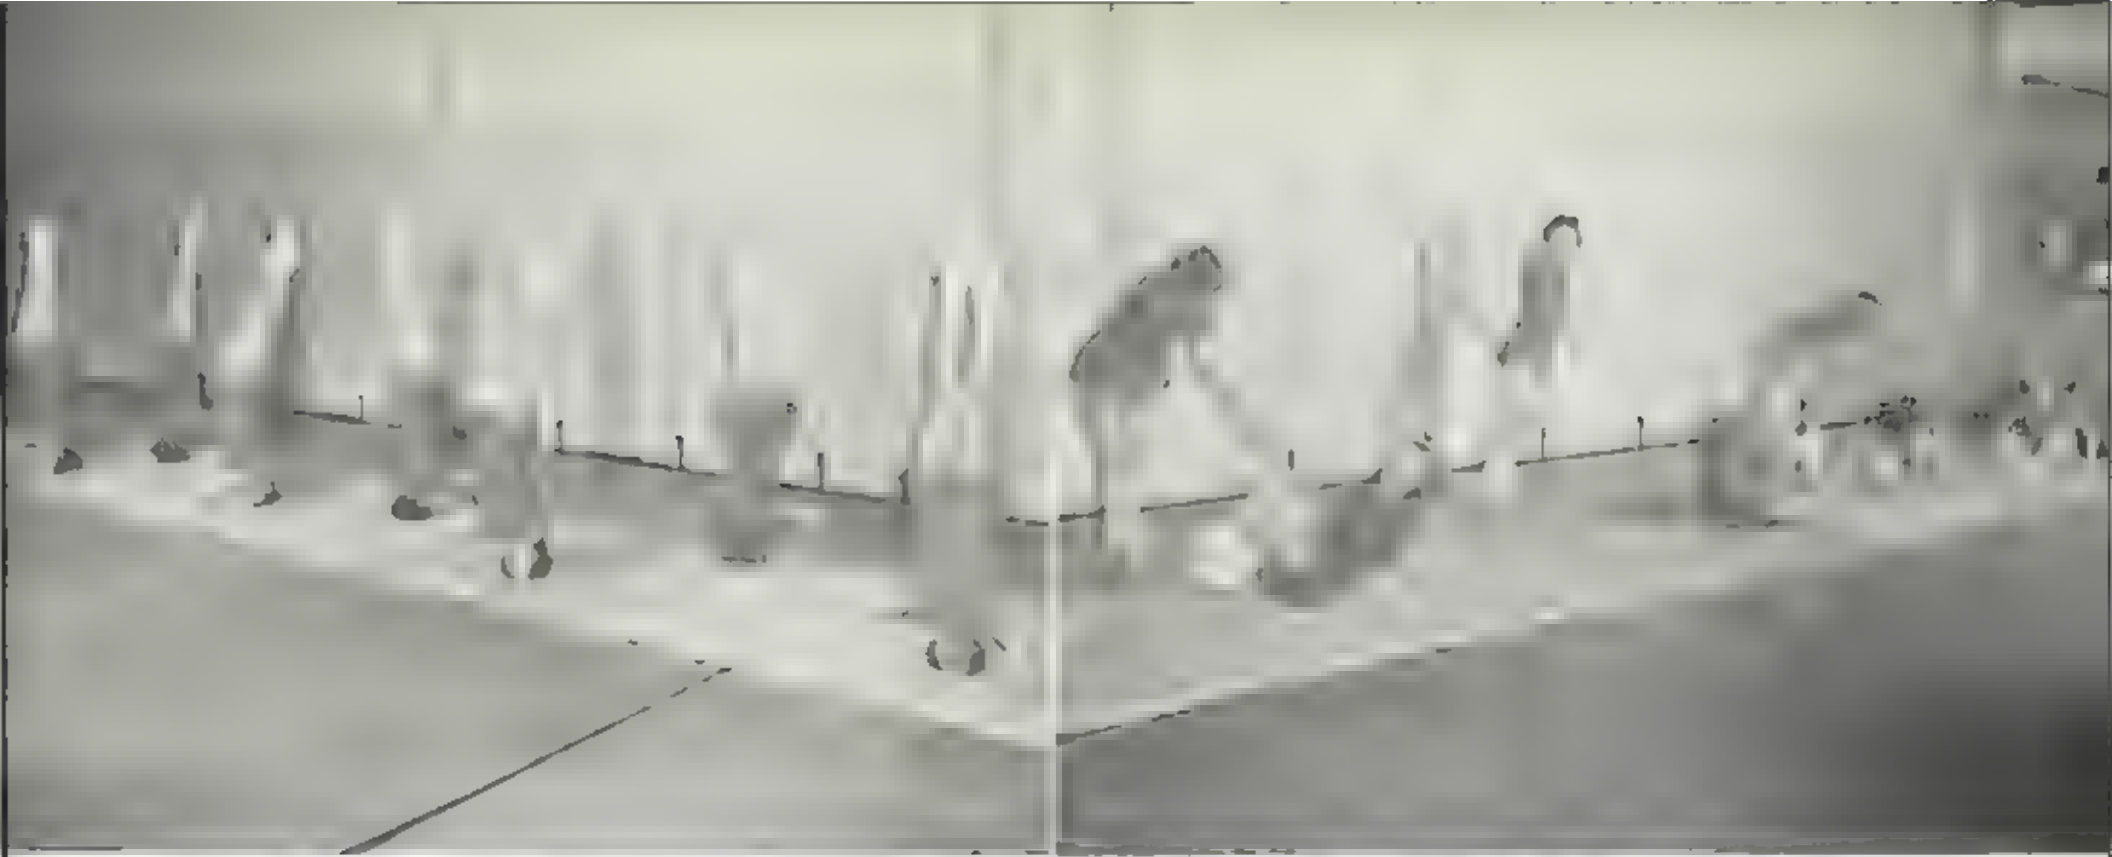

Physical and mental discipline is emphasized in this process of evolving strong, persevering women as models of Christian ideals. We are all concerned in attaining for us interior and exterior perfection.

Modesty . . . Womanhood— One . . . Inseparable

Continue . . . The blessed crusade for modesty is a war. Today S.D.S., our twentieth century organization, is furthering this Crusade in a world of pagan values. By instilling a love for the virtue of purity, S.D.S. strives to restore modesty to the fashioning. The loyal S.D.S. crusader, an example of the organization, chooses to buy or wear styles which do not adhere to the values of S.D.S. thus she creates a great enough demand for modest attractive clothing — Supply the Demand for the Supply

Purity of the organization is fostered by meetings, fashion shows, distribution of literature, and other widely diversified activities. Through the S.D.S. Modesty Crusade the Maria girl proves her willingness to fight for her right to be modest. The student who has made S.D.S. an integral part of her life exerts the most dynamic influence in winning the world for the Mary and Modesty.

Fair play, cooperation, and praise are among the keynotes of the Morris Athletic Club. In school and out, these marks of character are being developed and grown, knowing no bounds.

School sports is stimulated by after-school exercises, basketball, volleyball, and football. Extra-curricular activities, as boxing and track, help promote character as well as co-operation for the members. Frequently monthly Masses are conducted for the numerous students, a sign of cooperation and sportsmanship.

Good words uttered by the Morris Athletic Club are of great value in promoting the welfare of the students. The effects of the outstanding games are the reward which creates love, sweet, and trophy.

A world of knowledge is surveyed by student librarians: Car

Brotherly love — a crimson jewel — is surpassed by nothing in the world. Treasuring this precious gem, Maria's Junior High Red Cross Office Aides, Library Aides and Visual Aides perform deeds of gentle kindness and service.

Preservation of Lithuanian culture and traditions is the aim of the Ruta Club. Students of this nationality strive to retain their heritage and gladly render service at Lithuanian activities.

Corporal works of mercy predominate in the Junior Red Cross. Aiding those in need and cheering the afflicted, they seek to alleviate the suffering of fellow men.

Still another facet of the jewel of charity are the Aides of Maria. Tending to odd jobs behind the scenes of office and stage are Office Aides and Visual Aides. Silent servers, they explore extraneous worlds while lending a helping hand. Another world, one of books, unfolds before the student librarian as she assumes the diversified duties of custodian of literary works.

Inflamed with the fire of love, members of these, our service organizations, embrace all with the arms of charity for His sake.

Dads Devoted to Daughters' Interests

The Maria High School Fathers' Club emerges a creditable success upon completion of its first full year of existence. These enterprising fathers have laid the foundation for closer cooperation between parents and faculty.

A comprehensive knowledge of Maria Hall School is motivated by an interest in the religious and social welfare of their daughters, is ascribed to many of their noble efforts. Included among their labors is the provision of financial aid for all these pioneer undertakings.

To interest parents, guardians, and friends in the special problems confronting the Maria student, lectures are offered on Communism, indecent literature, and the attitude of parents in reference to vocations. Unification of all these forces will result in the attainment of their ~~ultimate goal~~ the Mary-like daughter of today . . . the Christian wife and mother of tomorrow.

Perpetuating Their Loyalty to Maria

Loyalty is the constant spirit of the Saint Casimir-Maria Alumnae. A feeling of satisfaction as well as joy, is experienced in assisting their country, their Alma Mater, Class reunions, Banquets . . . Alumnae Senior and Junior, and their monthly meeting programs.

Instilled by the Holy Spirit and guided by the principles instilled by their former teachers, faithful alumnae uphold the Christian principles represented in their school emblem: the crown — to adhere to their Catholic faith; the lily — to keep their soul and body pure; the olive branch — to be a standard of their Catholic training.

Sisters of St. Casimir Auxiliary
Diligent—Unseen Assistants

Dedicated to prayer, the Sisters of St. Casimir Auxiliary, these devoted men and women perform every task with an ardent zeal inspired by the Holy Spirit. St. Casimir, patron of the auxiliary, is a splendid example of every virtue they strive to achieve for the greater honor and glory of God.

As veterans of Italy they have a threefold effort to provide solutions for worthy causes: to wish to further their own education, to save money to form a family and purchase a home, and to raise their funds for the Sisters of St. Casimir. For many members and benefactors are numbered in the Sisters' daily supplications during the year. With Christ in our hearts auxiliary members persevere in their efforts to own the future of the organization.

Aggregate of Knowledge, Souvenirs, and Memories

The School of the Holy Cross, 1900

Waiting for that train to start!

Quite unlikely that these beaming itinerants will suffer nostalgia!

A rivederci, Chicago!

Three years of anticipation reached fulfillment as Maria's Seniors boarded the train to Washington, D. C. Ahead was a week of touring — traveling — visiting with Washington, under the supervision of Sisters and guests, presented to Seniors an invincible opportunity to amass a wealth of knowledge about the citadel of our nation's heritage. Jefferson's and Lincoln's Memorials — trips to Mt. Vernon and Annapolis . . . the Franciscan Monastery . . . the National Shrine to the Immaculate Conception . . . added to inspiring and pleasure-filled days.

The cares of travel were all forgotten in the surge of excitement roused at times at a glamorous Manhattan. New York's hectic rush, Fifth Avenue's exclusive shops, Times Square and Broadway — all were part of the week's adventures. Early amidst a flurry of farewells, Seniors completed another chapter in their vibrant lives.

Maria Seniors Make Their Debut

The mermaids saw you tickle by the time 7:45—7:00—the door to the ballroom is waiting. Your lovely, lovely—your—has finally arrived.

Yes, this is the big, anticipated night of the Senior Maria Seniors. Balcony in the main points of your time. From the beginning, you can see a fair princess with your Prince Charming. At the same time, perfect young beauty is only a cherished memory to be moved at the sight of your red or pressed petals from your course. Later, they will be your own, and to the sound of music on a cross, winter evening when you attend next year's Senior Ball as a Maria alumnus.

Ends in the heart of the year, please, our mid-winter ball of enchantment and fantasy.

Memory Closest to Heart and Hand

Our most precious tie that binds us to our beloved Alma Mater: a thing of beauty to keep, honor, and cherish forever. Admiring eyes reverently meditate on the gleaming banner with its symbols of charity, faith, and fortitude. The brilliant hue of the stars reflects the innermost beauty of our lovely Mother, resplendent as she calls and beckons us to her children.

Thank you, Mary Hall, for this year's beautiful display. Proudly we display these rings, gifted to parents, faculty, and alumni, the Holy Spirit for so many abundant years on this proud and school years.

Evening Ever-Remembered

A cotillion set in a spring garden . . . an air of enchantment . . . strains of blaring music — the long-looked-forward-to prom is a reality. The garden ballroom is filled with couples swaying to the magic of melody. Each girl is belle of the ball and her escort, man of the hour.

The seconds . . . minutes . . . hours take swift flight. As the clock chimes the final seconds, a veil of darkness falls over the garden — the gate slowly closes . . . locking within a Maria maiden's heart this enchanted night.

Show business — that magical occupation, the excitement of an opening performance — production managers, directors, stage hands, and technicians busying themselves with last minute check-ups. With the motto, "There are no small parts, only small people," Maria Theatre players ranging from leading lady to prop girl with equal enthusiasm. Now please direct your audiences, and versatile characters prove an exciting ride go to these troups whose primary objective is to entertain.

Staggering hilarity marked the annual school play, The Little Dog Laughed which centered on thermometers, energy peaks, and a sophisticated psychosocial major. On a more spectacular score, the music and speech departments presented The King and I, a production involving both humor and emotional appeal. This oriental masterpiece of captivating rhythm, brilliant color, and enchanting music enraptured the hearts of all who viewed it.

Teamwork, stamina, and perseverance are attributes adequately applied to the stars of Maria. Their undaunted fortitude, inspired by the Holy Spirit, aids and motivates them to preserve the Catholic ideals of good theatre.

Through A Candid Camera's Eye

Life at Maria embraces many persons, places, and activities never publicized. Only the lens of a candid camera can capture the true picture of all its aspects. Behind the scenes are many conscientious workers, from the women in the cafeteria to the men and women who keep the school in tip-top shape. All take pride in their work and seek no fame or glory, but rather enjoy their anonymity.

Uncredited to are student aides of Campus Shoppe and Snack Bar, bus drivers, janitors. Their services are utilized in every-day school activities and on many public occasions.

No candid portrait of Maria life would be complete if it omitted the students' daily visit to the chapel. Enhanced by the graces of the Holy Spirit, Marians advance to true Christian womanhood.

OUR THANK YOU

We, the editors of the 1960 edition of the MARIA, welcome the opportunity to express our gratitude to all our friends. Perhaps one might call this the "Without Whose-Help" Department.

The untiring efforts of many people made this edition of the MARIA possible: our moderators, whose inspiration and guidance was an indispensable factor; our staff members, who during long hours of diligent work, compiled this volume; you, students of Maria High School, who are the reason for the creation of the MARIA.

To our commercial friends goes an extra vote of thanks for their patient cooperation and assistance in the myriad phases of yearbook publication: Mr. Norman Koenig of the NORMAN KING CO., INC., Berwyn, for printing and production work; Mr. Anthony Comunale and his staff at MARSHALL STUDIO in downtown Chicago for photography; Mr. Stankus of ALL-STATES PHOTO CO., Chicago for underclassmen pictures.

It is our sincere hope that these efforts have produced a treasury of campus memories which will constantly elicit happy remembrance of our high school years.
